Funds Suite

Providing Perspective on the Mutual Funds Market

Interactive Data's Funds Suite provides information on a wide range of mutual funds, along with various analytical tools such as search and comparison functionalities. It can help fund providers face the challenge of clearly presenting suitable information to various target groups with varying degrees of financial knowledge.

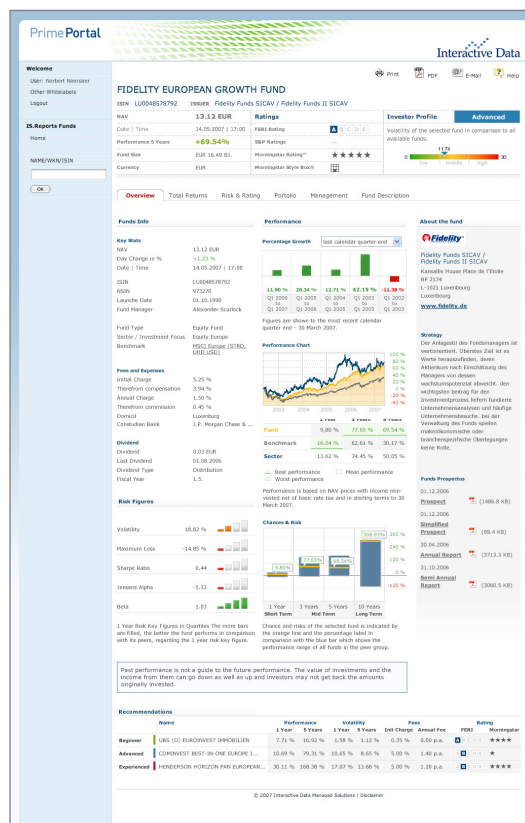

The Funds Suite can help

- Retail and private banks to increase sales and advisory workflow efficiency.
- Online brokers to facilitate retail clients' investment decision-making.
- Investment companies to optimize the marketing of mutual fund products.

Gain Insights Into the Mutual Funds Market

Funds Suite is designed to help bring transparency into the world of mutual funds, using:

- Sophisticated search and comparison functionalities, helping to identify investments, performance information or single values
- Vast peer group comparisons, visually optimized, in order to support decision-making
- Intelligent navigation that helps to quickly identify investment alternatives
- Customized information offerings including the client's proprietary recommendations or research material.

Access Information Easily

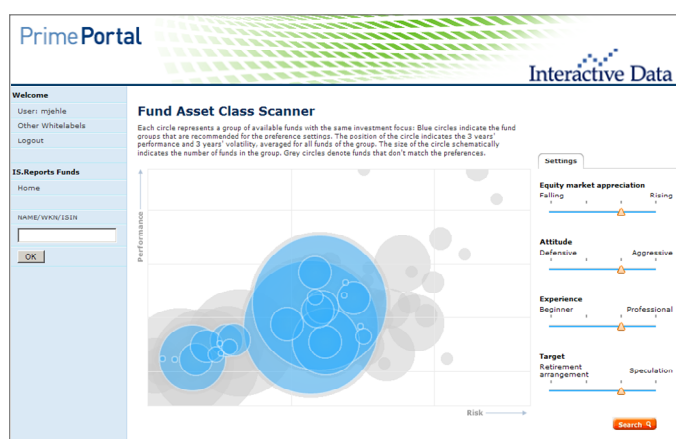

Funds Suite is designed to offer easy access to

- More than 70,000 mutual funds registered in Europe and the U.S.
- Market overviews, intelligent search functionality, comparisons and fact sheets
- Additional tools such as in-depth risk/return analyses.

■ Further Useful Functionalities

In addition to standard analysis functionalities, Funds Suite offers additional support including:

- Workflow-oriented visualization and other decision-support tools, e.g. risk bars
- Seamless integration of information from Interactive Data Managed Solutions' data universe into individual funds applications
- Documentation of individual advisory results including up-to-date funds information
- Ability to generate PDF fact sheets and brochures in ready-to-print quality on selected mutual funds.
